

Radio report

Use this sheet to plan a radio report. Make notes in each section

PHOTOCOPIABLE

quote

quote

Headline

What happened?

Questions to ask
Charlie/ The shopkeeper

FM
MW

READ & RESPOND: A resource based on Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

299

SCHOLASTIC
www.scholastic.co.uk

Illustration © 2009, Rupert Van Wyk/Beehive Illustration.

Slavery debate

Cut out the following statements and sort them into groups, deciding if they are 'for' or 'against' Mr Wonka employing the Oompa-Loompas in his factory.

8

Mr Wonka saved the Oompa-Loompas from the hornswogglers, snozzwangers and whangdoodles.

Mr Wonka only has to pay the Oompa-Loompas chocolate.

He uses the Oompa-Loompas to test potentially dangerous inventions.

He lost an Oompa-Loompa testing 'fizzy lifting drinks' outdoors.

All the Oompa-Loompas live in the factory – even the children, babies and old people.

Mr Wonka and the Oompa-Loompas share a sense of fun.

Mr Wonka trusts the Oompa-Loompas.

Mr Wonka orders the Oompa-Loompas around.

Mr Wonka doesn't let them in his Inventing Room.

The Oompa-Loompas respect Mr Wonka.

People from the town used to work in the factory but now they don't have jobs any more.

Questions, questions!

Choose one of the child characters to interview in a role play. Ask the questions below. Remember that the child character(s) are now older.

Name of character _____

Age _____

Job _____

Interview questions

1. How did you feel when you won the golden ticket?

2. What did you think of Willy Wonka's factory when you visited it?

3. What happened to you in the factory? Was this deserved?

4. Now that you are older, do you think you have changed? If so how?

5. What did you learn from the whole experience of visiting Willy Wonka's factory?

Welcome, my little friends!

Use the description of the five children in Chapter 13 to help you to describe one of the children from Willy Wonka's point of view.

Name of child: _____

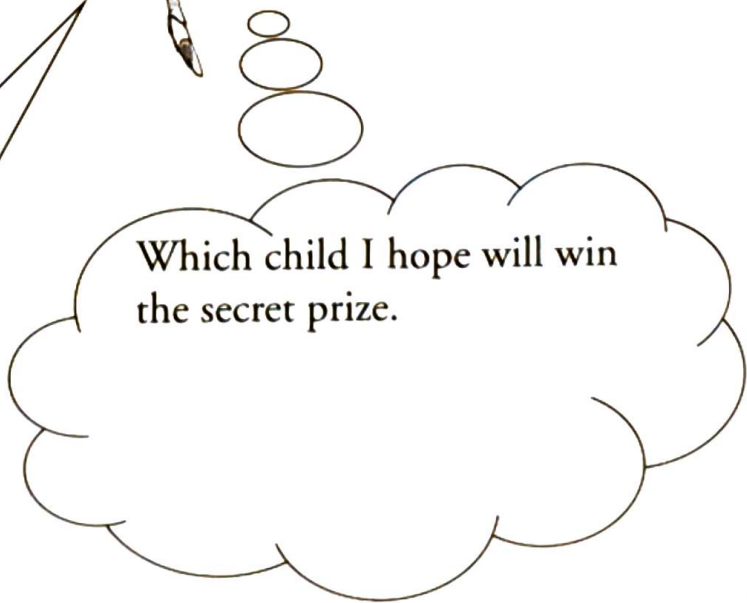

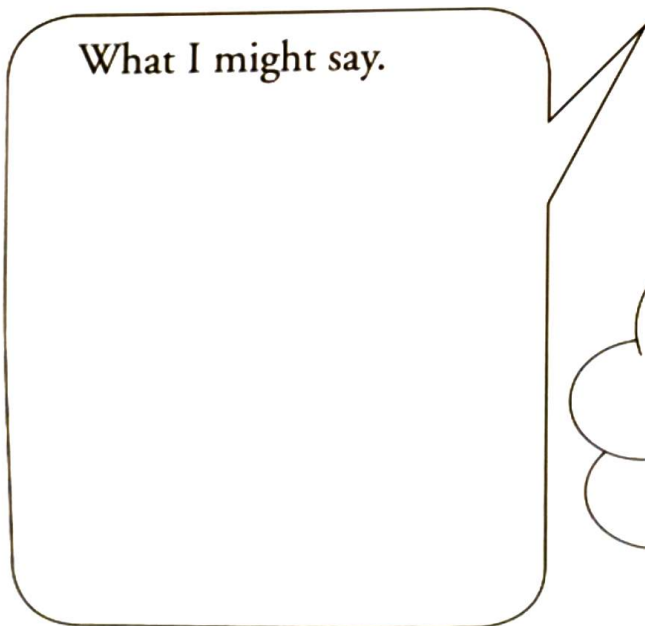

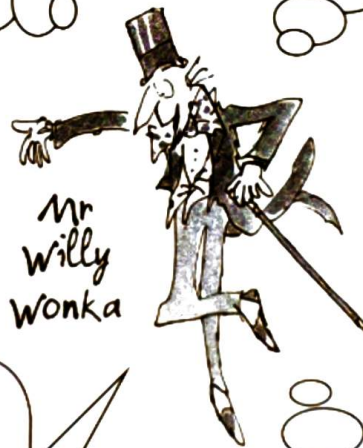

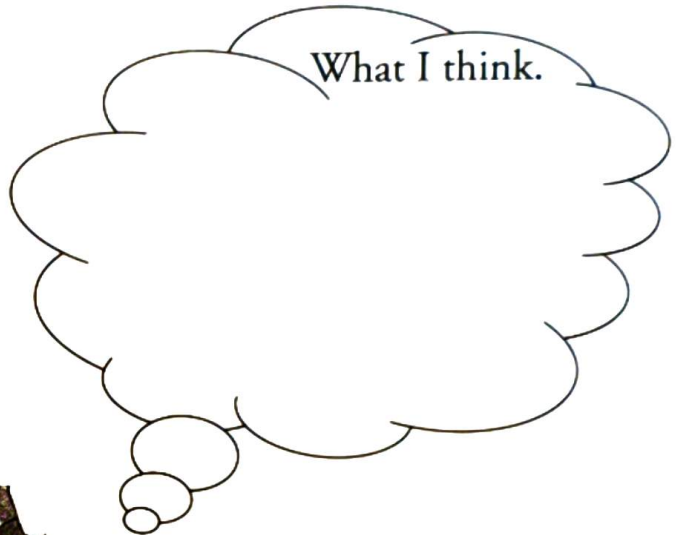

Illustration © Quentin Blake.

Plot, character and setting

SECTION
4

Just desserts

Do you think every character got what they deserved? Use this grid to help you think about each character and the fate that awaited them in the factory. Use evidence from the story to support your ideas.

Character name	I think this character is...	I think his/her punishment is right/wrong because...
Mike Teavee
Veruca Salt
Augustus Gloop
Violet Beauregarde		