

Question Bank MF2.1

Write T for true or F for false.

When you use a credit card to buy something, you do not have to pay for it.

Some stores have loyalty cards and they can save you money when you go back to the shop again.

The safest place to keep your money is in a box under your bed.

A credit card can be used to pay for something and it means you are borrowing money.

You can only pay for things using coins and notes.

A gift voucher can be used to pay for items or services.

I think

My teacher thinks

Question Bank MF2.2

Ring the items you think are needs and underline the items you think are wants.

designer clothes	a new computer game	take-away food
a car	rent	a holiday
food shopping	electricity bill	toys

Complete the table with examples of goods and services.

Goods	Services
clothes	hairdresser

I think

My teacher thinks

